

An aerial night photograph of Pont-à-Marcq, France, showing a dense network of city lights and roads. The lights are primarily yellow and white, creating a glowing pattern against the dark night sky. A prominent yellow border frames the central part of the image, enclosing the main title text.

Pont-à-Marcq, France trip

2025

Sunday(arrival day)

We left Luvia at 1:45 and our flight to Brussels left at 7:40, and arrived at 9:25. After that we took a bus to Lille. And in Lille the families came to pick us up to their houses. And after that everyone spent their day differently.

Monday

We all woke up and ate breakfast. Then we headed to school which started at 8.38 in school we went to a school tour. After that we had a comparing cultures workshop. After it we went to school lunch. After school lunch we went to read and attended to a lesson of a host student. Last thing in school on was school tour quiz. After school

Tuesday

On tuesday we went to school in the morning as usual and had art for two hours. After that we had lunch and then took a bus to Lille. When we arrived to Lille we were given task papers about the city culture. First we visited a cathedral and after that we explored the city and finished the tasks on the papers, then we had free time in Lille. Then we left Lille and went back to our host families.

Wednesday

We started school at 7.40. First we had a lesson with our host partners. Next we had a workshop, local cooking & baking. We were baking madeleines and a cheese pie. School ended at 12.00.

After School almost everyone went to a laser game in Lille. (Charles was the best at the laser game.)

Friday

We packed our bags and headed to the Lille's bus station at half past five. Then we drove to the airport in Bryssel. Then we got on the plane. The plane took off at 11:20 and we landed approximately 14:55 at Helsinki airport. At 16:22 we took a train from Helsinki airport to Tikkurila. Then we changed trains. We took a train from Tikkurila to Tampere. We changed trains again. We took a train from Tampere to Pori. We arrived at Pori at 19:44. Our family picked us up from there.
