

Relative pronouns (text book page 186)

>	Ali is a boy. + He is ten years old. Ali, who is a boy, is ten years old.	Ali on poika. + Hän on 10 vuotta vanha. Ali, joka on poika, on 10 vuotta vanha.
>	Aisha is my sister. + Her car is there. Aisha, whose car is there, is my sister.	Aisha on minun siskoni. + Hänen autonsa on tuolla. Aisha, jonka auto on tuolla, on minun siskoni.
>	The book is old. The book is blue. The book which / that is old is blue.	Kirja on vanha. + Kirja on sininen. Kirja, joka on vanha, on sininen.
>	I live in Helsinki. + Helsinki is in Finland. Helsinki where I live is in Finland.	Minä asun Helsingissä. + Helsinki on Suomessa. Helsinki, jossa asun, on Suomessa.
>	She says something. + It is important. What she says is important.	Hän sanoo jotain. + Se on tärkeää. Se, mitä hän sanoo, on tärkeää.

1. The woman _____ lives next door is very friendly. joka
2. The place _____ we met was very beautiful. jossa
3. I don't know _____ she wants for her birthday. (se,) mitä
4. The little girl _____ bicycle was stolen is very sad. jonka
5. The movie _____ was Swedish was fantastic. joka
6. The book _____ was on the table was really interesting. joka
7. The restaurant _____ we had dinner was expensive. jossa
8. The teacher _____ teaches mathematics is very nice. joka
9. _____ Abdinajib said was very exciting. Se, mitä
10. I have a friend _____ father drives a taxi. jonka