

Circle the words that should be capitalised

1. The mountain range Mr. Bachman pointed out was the Grand Tetons.
2. Skidmore College is located on Broadway at the north end of Saratoga Springs, New York.
3. The Forum Program held its spring orientation at West Point Military Academy.
4. The short story "Blue Gill" was published in Jayne Anne Philips' book Fast Lanes.
5. Many people today are intent on exploring their relationship with God, nature and their higher selves.
6. He lives in Beech Street facing the River Thames not far from Oakchester Station.
7. As a clerk in a Swiss tourist office he has to speak French, Italian, German and English, though he has never crossed the English Channel.
8. I have a B.Sc. degree in Economics from a Scottish university but now I am only a stamp salesman in a Manchester post office.
9. On the first Tuesday in February he started reading a book called the History of Civilisation and now at Christmas he has just finished reading it.
10. The President of the Bank of Finland says that Finns should read the Bible and listen to the BBC news/News.

Lisää lauseisiin isot alkukirjaimet ja välimerkit

1. On Sunday(,) my uncle asked me why I was studying Spanish history
2. He didn't know Aunt Sylvia had invited me to spend a few months at her house in the Canary Islands
3. In January(,) I will travel to the Black Sea to meet my friend Olga.
4. By the way, her native language is Georgian but we communicate in Russian.
5. Did you know that mum used to speak fluent Spanish because she lived in the Canary Islands for two years?
6. Yesterday(,) I was told that Aunt Maud would be coming home from the Middle East for Easter.
7. Our Uncle Herbert, however, will be heading for Oslo in northern Europe since his friend will be receiving the Nobel Peace Prize.
8. As you can see, we have friends in high places, don't we?