

Should Schools Ban Expensive Branded Clothing? What Do You Think?

Name: _____ Date: _____

“A school isn’t a catwalk. Wearing expensive fashion brands shouldn’t be allowed and all schools should have a uniform policy that encourages modest and functional coats. Some students and parents may feel excessive pressure to spend hundreds of pounds on a pricy coat to avoid bullying and that simply isn’t fair.”

“Most schools have a strict uniform policy regarding the day-to-day wear of students. Dictating the sort of coat they can wear to school is a step too far. I spent a fair amount of money on a high-quality coat for my child and it’s ridiculous that she won’t be able to wear it to school. Teachers and poor parenting are to blame if some students decide to bully others for their choice of clothing.”

What do you think? Should schools be able to ban expensive branded clothing?

Use the space below to state who you agree with and why you do so, as well as addressing the opinion you disagree with too.

[illegible]