

8d, sivu 79

1. The story in the novel was cruel though / although / even though the narrator told it beautifully / in a beautiful way.
2. People's despair was described very well though / although / even though the narrator never said a word about it.
3. In fact / Actually, life in the country(side) concentrated / focused on protecting families.
4. People were always on the lookout ready to alert the others if something unexpected happened.
5. People supported each other and would do / used to do anything to save their neighbours.