

Phrasal Verbs

LOOK!

Phrasal verbs often include another preposition if they take an object.

LOOK!

Be aware that many of these phrasal verbs also have other meanings.

Phrasal Verb Mix and Match

Connect each of the phrasal verbs below with the correct definition.

- | | |
|------------------------|---|
| 1) back up | a) to interrupt somebody talking |
| 2) bottle something up | b) to support |
| 3) believe in | c) to keep all one's emotions inside |
| 4) boss about | d) to seem, to communicate a certain quality |
| 5) butt in | e) to continuously talk without stopping |
| 6) come across (as) | f) to mix well with other people |
| 7) count on | g) to think something to be true or right |
| 8) creep out | h) to result, finally become |
| 9) dote on (or over) | i) to disapprove of |
| 10) drag down | j) to make nervous or uncomfortable |
| 11) end up | k) to care about excessively |
| 12) fawn over | l) to be independent |
| 13) fend for oneself | m) to flatter obsessively, idolise unnecessarily |
| 14) fit in | n) to reduce the reputation of quality of somebody |
| 15) fool around | o) to mature and stop doing or liking something |
| 16) frown on (upon) | p) to consider reliable to be or do something |
| 17) go on | q) to not be serious or play and tell jokes |
| 18) grow out of | r) to tell people what to do, to be very dominating |