Comments

I think a big commercial player is worth choosing. They have the ability and infrastructure to take care of post-production, ordering pictures, etc. For example, Seppälä's school pictures have been handy when the pictures can be ordered on the portal, you can share the link with relatives and they can also order the pictures they want. Of course not the cheapest option.

Kuvaverkko and Seppälä, in the other cheap Group photos and children's photos. Should get a few euros max, when more children, going a lot of money. Last time it was only 2.95e / class photo, really cheap it would be good that the magnetic pictures in the fridge would also be included in the offer and not the standard price as the children's pictures are also individual as stickers

Hoping to change the supplier of school photos: The quality of Seppälän koulukuvat is quite poor, this has already been stated during kindergarten
