

8b

1. True
2. True
3. False. One reason people learn English is so they can sell things in North America and the British Commonwealth.
4. False. The rise of English means fewer people speak native American languages.
5. True
6. False. English has borrowed more words from French than French has borrowed from English.
7. False. The professor recommends learning American Sign language because it would increase the number of people you can interact with
8. False. He wants to understand his environment better.