

1. Alex is driving me up the wall!
 2. Jennifer loves me! I'm on cloud nine.
 3. Why the long face? Are you down in the dumps?
 4. If you can't take it anymore you are at the end of your tether.
 5. Are you nervous? Do you have butterflies in your stomach?
 6. The kids are full of beans!
 7. If I say that, they'll think I have bats in the belfry.
 8. The referee was so unfair and we all got rather hot under the collar.
 9. I have to tell you this. I am crazy about you!
 10. Can't we try again? I think we got off on the wrong foot.
 11. I was gobsmacked when they asked me to perform the solo.
- a. He is a real ball of fire.
 - b. I have an exam tomorrow. I am on pins and needles.
 - c. Miles has fallen head over heels with Carrie.
 - d. Don't mention the taxes to her! Jane flies off the handle every time you talk about money.
 - e. An Italian who loves Finnish food! I am flabbergasted.
 - f. That guy must have a screw loose.
 - g. Got my listening comprehension results this morning. I am over the moon and can't wait to tell everyone.
 - h. Adam won't tolerate bad behaviour any longer. He is at his wit's end.
 - i. I was sick as a parrot when we lost yet another match against Liverpool.
 - j. The new boss got off to a bad start, but perhaps we ought to give him a second chance.
 - k. Kate is a real pain in the neck.