

3b

1. Seem like he's airborne      look like he's flying
2. Relatives to one another      related to each other
3. Preferably      rather than
I prefer coffee to tea
Preferably coffee, please
I'd rather drink coffee than tea.
4. They can get hold of      they can lay their (one's) hands on
5. Have gained a lot of popularity on social media have taken social media by storm
6. Unexpectedly      all of a sudden
7. Keeping in mind      considering
8. Loses only to      is second only to

- |                                      |   |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| 9. Have discovered their place       | have found their niche             |
| 10. Added                     | thrown in                                 |
| 11. Stood out                        | attracted attention/caught the eye |
| 12. What has been happening recently | what has been going on now                |

Alleviivaus = kirjakielisempi

Lihavointi = syy, miksi fraasi piti etsiä tekstistä

Kirjakiellelle on tyypillistä

- välttää arkisia verbejä 'come, get, have, do, make'
- välttää fraasiverbejä, joissa on arkinen verbi + prepositio (throw in)
- suosia latinasta (ranskasta) tulevia lainasanoja germaanisten (saksa & ruotsi ) lainasanojen sijaan (stand out -> attract attention)