

1. Infinitiivin aikamuodot

1. It's nice to be here. (aktiivi, nykyhetki)
2. Harry seems to have been here yesterday. (aktiivi, mennyt aika)
3. He seems to have forgotten his umbrella here. (aktiivi, mennyt aika)
4. I'm sure Jeff will be the first to solve the puzzle. (aktiivi, nykyhetki)
5. Boppi should be taken / ought to be taken along to the trip. (passiivi, nykyhetki)
6. She doesn't want to be left home alone. (passiivi, nykyhetki)
7. She seems to have been left at home all too often lately. (passiivi, mennyt aika)
8. This should have been thought about/of before the family bought a dog. (passiivi, mennyt aika)

2. To + infinitiivi –rakenteet

1. Not to study languages would be a serious mistake.
2. He went home to finish his essay.
3. The ability to understand body language is useful.
4. I have nothing to tell you.
5. It is difficult for me to start the day without coffee.
6. Dad moved quietly (so as / in order to) not to wake the others.
7. I was sorry to hear about your accident.
8. It was kind of you to wait for me.
9. I finally managed to break the code.
10. Some people cannot afford to eat every day.
11. The police officer told the people to leave/ evacuate the building.
12. I'm waiting for you to make up your mind / to make a decision soon.
13. Hey, you promised not to laugh at my costume.
14. Is the coffee too hot to drink?
15. We hope to see you again here soon.

3. Paljas infinitiivi = infinitiivi ilman 'to'-partikkelia

1. I think you had better leave now.
2. Rather than take a bus to school I cycle there.
3. Meg is happy. She does nothing but smile.
4. Your news made me laugh out loud.
5. Why won't you let me borrow your charger?
6. Liam couldn't switch on his new calculator.
7. I saw him try it several times.
8. Now he does nothing but sigh.
9. Chemistry homework sometimes make you sweat.
10. You had better let someone help you.
11. Did you hear the siren ring/sound the alarm?
12. We must leave the building immediately.
13. Fire fighters made people move further away.
14. Why not stay and watch the situation develop?
15. Rather than stay here I'll watch the news on TV.

4. Infinitiivi vai 'that'-lause

1. We believe (that) our neighbour is a cyber spy.
2. He is believed to have spied on international businesses.
3. Experts know (that) cyber spying/espionage is a big threat.
4. Cyber spying is supposed to be a hot topic at CIA.
5. Do you believe (that) your own computer is safe.
6. We know (that) our neighbour(s) travel a lot.
7. They are known to have travelled a lot in the Far East.
8. Do you think (that) it means something?
9. But I know (that) he is believed to have been a spy already for a long time.