

Matt, a girl phoned you yesterday.

1. She asked if she could speak to you.
2. I told her you weren't at home just then and
3. That you had gone out just an hour earlier.
4. If she wanted to leave you a message
5. She answered no, she didn't think you'd remember her after all that time. She would call back later.

The immigration official at JFK Airport in NYC asked me

1. If I was there on business or for pleasure.
2. I told him I was attending a conference.
3. Next he wanted to know how long I was staying.
4. I informed him I would return to Finland the following (myös 'the next' on ok, mutta artikkeli on välttämätön) Monday.
5. Then he asked me where I would be staying while I was there.

Käännöslauseet

1. As a child, I thought I would some day be/become an astronaut.
2. I wasn't sure if/whether women could be/become astronauts.
3. Everyone asked me/kept asking me why more traditional professions didn't interest me.
4. I answered that I didn't want any/a boring job.
5. Later I realized/realised that I probably had to/should be more realistic.