

Awareness and Respect

We understand that Aboriginal art is a reflection of things sacred to the indigenous people of Australia. We do not share their tribal stories and culture, but we wanted to celebrate this beautiful art form. We felt that one way that we could be respectful and still enjoy this way of painting would be to use our own tribal stories and culture. So, we have chosen Finland's special animals and legends in our representations.

