Action Tracker

Your role is to re-tell what has just happened in the story. You should pick out the most important events and tell them to your group in your own words. Make notes so that it will be easy to tell the story to your group. Use full sentences!

Where does the section's action begin?
What key things happen?
Where does the section's action end?