

Passage Person

You find passages your group would like to or should hear read aloud. These passages should be memorable, interesting, puzzling, funny or important. Your notes should include the quotations, but also why you chose them, and what you want to say about them. You can either read the passage aloud yourself or ask members of your group to read roles.

Where is the passage (mark the page number, chapter, and paragraph)?

What did the text make you think about?

What do you think this text or passage was about?

How might other people (of different backgrounds) think about this text or passage?

What one question would you ask the writer if you got the chance? Why?

What are the most important ideas or moments in this text or section?
