Active Library

Why to work collaboratively?

- It encourages to study actively
- It inspires pupils to network widely
- It helps to compare texts and build big pictures
- It gives pupils an opportunity to share what they have learned
- It makes possible to analyse reading experiences collectively
- It helps to become conscious of the communal nature of language and various ways to find meanings of/for texts

Why to use art educational methods?

- They make the most of activity, experiences, sensibilities and intuition in learning
- They increase understanding of cultural characteristics of different types of texts
- They offer learning tools and methods for many kinds of readers
- They help learner to exploit and develop their whole language repertoire
