

OSIO I: TEKSTIN LUKEMINEN

---

STUDENT A

Study the text and read it aloud to your partner. She/he will then comment on the text briefly. Then listen to your partner's text carefully and comment on it by answering the questions.

STUDENT B

Study the text and read it aloud to your partner. First she/he will read a text to you. Listen to it carefully and comment on it by answering the questions.

PLUG SANDWICH

Florist Dawn Jefferson bit into an egg mayonnaise sandwich and found a kitchen sink plug in it. Workmates fell about laughing as Dawn, 22, spluttered over the plastic sink stopper.

"I couldn't believe it," she said, "one of my mates had just joked that the sandwiches we buy are always so packed that you wouldn't know what was in them half the time."

Dawn took the £1.55 sandwich back to the bakery in Nottingham. She said, "They told me the plug must have fallen in with the lettuce." They sent her an apology and a £5 voucher.

A company executive remarked yesterday: "We have not had anything of this nature before."

QUESTIONS FOR THE LISTENER:

- Describe your reaction to this story. Are you shocked, disgusted, amused, or something else?
- If you found a foreign object in your food, what would you do?

