

OSIO III: KESKUSTELU

---

Read the situation, then act it out together with your partner.

A RESTAURANT BILL

STUDENT A

You are a waiter/waitress in a restaurant. You have been serving a group of people and you have just given the bill to one of them. Now one of them has a difficult request.

STUDENT B

You have had an evening out in a restaurant with a group of friends/colleagues. The waiter/waitress has brought you the bill. Unfortunately, he/she has brought you one bill for the whole group. You are asking the waiter/waitress for separate bills for each member of the group, so that each person can pay separately.

COVER AT LEAST THE FOLLOWING TOPICS:

- Presenting one bill for the group (Student A)
- Requesting separate bills for each person in the group (Student B)
- Reacting to the request (Student A)
- Giving (Student B) and receiving (Student A) information about which person had which food, drinks, etc.
- Arranging for different people in the group to pay by different methods (cash, credit card, bank card, etc.)
- Closing the dialogue
