

Tehtävä 7d

1. Who will be at risk when the world of work / working life changes and working from home becomes common?
2. Has remote working altered/changed work practice / patterns / modes of work?
3. Having a workplace / place of work in an office used to symbolise everything society aspired to.
4. The pandemic stopped the commute of millions of people and introduced them to the convenience of a non-commute life.
5. That/It changed/alterd work identities but in large part it didn't decrease productivity as had long been feared.
6. It doesn't matter where the work is. What matters is whether work is a place worth being.