

Working Life Glossary A

1. My aunt resigned in January and has been applying for a job / has been looking for work ever since.
2. Many restaurants and hotels seem to be interested in finding more personnel these days.
3. Is it a good fringe benefit to get free lunches at the restaurant where you work?
4. Is the nearby cafe hiring/employing new employees/workers at the moment?
5. It's owned by an entrepreneur who works all hours.
6. Will you never rest if you run a business / an enterprise?

Working Life Glossary B

1. Occupation
2. retirement
3. prospects
4. promotion,
5. Pensioner
6. Salary
7. Working
8. Qualified/Skilled
9. professions/occupations
10. Entrepreneurs
11. apprenticeship
12. company

Working Life Glossary C

1. How familiar are you with this (line of) business?
2. How often do you update your CV/resume?
3. How long have you been applying for a job?
4. What kind of perks/fringe benefits do you expect?
5. Have you ever been on strike or furloughed / on unpaid holiday?
6. Would you be willing to work on commission?
7. Have you ever considered becoming an entrepreneur / a self-employed person?
8. What kind of references did your previous employer give you?
9. What is a reasonable severance payment in your opinion?
10. What would make you quit your job / resign?