

Our trip to Washington D.C.

Day 1

Oskari and I went to eat some fries. After we had eaten, we went to see the Smithsonian museums. We thought it was very interesting. Unfortunately we didn't take any pictures. We went to sleep early, because we were tired from the flight there.

Day 2

We woke up at 10 a.m. and went to eat breakfast. It was delicious, waffles and bacon. After we ate the waffles and bacon, we went to see the Lincoln monument and the Washington monument. We got some evening snack and went to sleep. Here's a picture of the Lincoln monument:

Day 3

We woke up and we were so excited to take a tour at the White house that we didn't eat any breakfast. Trump was giving a speech there. We laughed and said "What an idiot". Then we went to the airport and got on the plane.

It was a nice holiday.
