

Finnish forestry

POKE College holds various forestry opportunities, where we learn all about the national species of trees and their properties.

We take part in things like making firewood, planting trees and cutting them down too. We learn how to handle machines such as strimmers and chainsaws, as well as how to maintain and care for them.

With this knowledge, we help maintain the grounds on which POKE College is located.

