System of government constitution -1

- Britain is unusual in that it has an ‘unwritten’ constitution: unlike the great majority of countries there is no single legal document which sets out in one place the fundamental laws outlining how the state works.
- Britain’s lack of a ‘written’ constitution can be explained by its history.
- It has been suggested that the British Constitution can be summed up in eight words here is some :
- The crown, Europe, European act in 1972,

System of government electoral 2

- The system of government is when England have election every five years to see who is prim minster and who are the MPs in parliament.
- The job of parliament is to pass laws and say weather to raise taxes .
- Parliament is three different sections the queen of England the house of commons and the house of lords.

What are the worst things in your country?(Top 3)-1

- Rents & Bills - These days Rent & Bills are getting really Expensive these days and if you don't pay it then it's Criminal offense.
- Queues - These days there are queues EVERYWHERE!!!Literally EVERYWHERE!!! There are queues when you are going to the Bus! When you are going to the ATM! Even when you are going to McDonalds, Disney's Shop and Even on Games You have to choose the Spectate option and wait for someone to drop out until you can Play!
- Strike Day – It is so annoying when you are on the way to school and your Bus/Train is on a delay and therefore makes you late to school.

What are the worst things in your country?(Top 3)-2

- Prices – These days shops are increasing in costs because of the amount of people coming. It gets annoying.
- Amounts of people – These days because of the amounts of people coming to the country, places are becoming over-crowded such as Swimming pools, Restaurants etc.
- Traffic – There are lots of traffic these days. It is hard to get around and takes longer. So if you are getting ready, make sure you are prepared.

A typical school day-1

We have registration at 8:45 to 9:00 twice every week I have assembly once with our head of year and once with the lower school. When we don't have assembly we have parade or we go to our form tutor this happens every Tuesday, Thursday and Friday .after this we have 2 different lessons in 2 different rooms and then a 20 minute break then 2 more lessons then we have lunch after lunch we have 2 more lessons until we go home

A typical school day-2

- At break we have many clubs here are some clubs :
- Minecraft club
- Science club
- Lego club
- Film club
- Homework club

School rules -1

- Full uniform must be worn at all times.
- No items of jewellery.
- Hair must be above the collar, eyebrows and ear.
- Running, fighting, selling, swearing, eating and wandering the corridor is not permitted.
- Teachers and other pupils must be treated with respect.
- School property ( library and exercise books, computers, science equipment and maths equipment) must not be misused and if broken a charge may be made for any loss.

Climate (Monthly climate of London)-1

The climate in London is cold and rainy which is annoying because when you want to go out you cant, and when it is warm every one is out of the houses but its rare for it to be warm so that's why were all out.

Climate (Monthly climate of London)-2

The types of weather we can have are: Hail, Storm, Really windy, and flooding, which is quite bad.

School rules -2

- Mobile phones must stay in your pocket or locker.
- No MP3 players, PSP, or any other electrical devices in school.
- Cigarettes, cigarette lighters, matches, knives, fireworks, or any other potentially dangerous items must not be brought into school. There will be a serious consequence.
- Money is allowed in school but not a large amount.

What are the worst things in your country?(Top 3)-1

.One of the worst things is tiny homes the average of a home is 947 square feet and a little garden to grow a flower.

.Rain Rain Rain! In London it rains a lot but sometimes its sunny so it's a good reason to take a umbrella if its going to rain.

.Strike day! Strike day is a really day you cant go on bus or train because transport are on strike. This means you might be late for school or anything important.the reason is because the buses are full and you need wait for another.

What are the worst things in your country?(Top 3)-2

- . Bills today bills are getting expensive for example the lights, water and gas also paying the rent of the house that your living in.
- .prices of food! The prices of food are higher and higher this means the company gets more money .
- . Traffic! In London there are lots of traffic this make lots of noises and there are lots of cars this make road busy and sometimes it dangerous.
