

RENEWABLE ENERGY FOR A GREENER FUTURE LTTA Sagunt 12 to 16 december 2022

| MONDAY - 12                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | TUESDAY - 13                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | WEDNESDAY - 14                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | THURSDAY - 15                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       | DIVENDRES - 16                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 8:15h – Reception at the school 9:10h – Showcasing students' works about "Renewable energies (Classroom 0:01) 10:01 – Welcome from the Headmaster and coffee break – (Classroom 0:01) 11h – Departure by bus 12h – Visit to the biogas plant in Vall d'Uixò. 13 – Departure for Ain – Sierra de Espadán Natural Park. 14h – Pic-nic lunch. 15h – Tour of Ain; water route, cork oaks and castle. 18h – Back to Sagunto | 8 :45 – Meet at the train station to go to Valencia. Historic tour of the centre of Valencia visiting the most important monuments including the church of San Nicolás and the Silk Museum. 14h – Free time for lunch*. 16h – Visit to the energy classroom. 18h – Back to Sagunto by train. | 9h – Reception at Sagunto City Hall. 10h - Cultural visit to the historic centre of Sagunto. 14h PERFORMANCE and explanation of murals. In the schoolyard. "Picaeta" provided by the AFA (Association of students' families) Free afternoon | 8:15h – Normal class with the pupils they host. 9:15h – Departure by bus to the Almardá marshes. Guided tour by members of the environmental association AGRÓ 13h – Visit Albufera Natural Park and boat ride 14:30 – Lunch 16h – Visit to the Principe Felipe Science Museum. 18h – Shopping and free time 19h – Back to Sagunto. | 8:15h – Normal class with the pupils they host. 9:15h – Departure by bus to the Almardá marshes. Guided tour by members of the environmental association AGRÓ 12h – Delivery of participation certificates in the "Casa Penya". 13:30 – Pic-nic lunch on the beach (weather permitting) 16h – Back to the High School. End of activities |

* Food is at your own expense as there is a wide range of restaurants in the city centre.

Cofinanciado por
la Unión Europea

Co-funded by the European Union