Strophe 1

She Am came to me one morning, one lonely Sunday morning, her G long hair flowing in the Am midwinter wind.
 I know not how she found me, for in darkness I was walking and de- G struction lay a- round me from a Am fight I could not win.

Refrain

Am Ah-a- ah... G Am G Am

Strophe 2

She Am asked me name my foe then, I said I need with- in some men to G fight and kill their brothers without Am thought of love or god.
 And I begged her give me horses to trample down my enemy, so G eager was my passion to de- Am vour this waste of life.

Refrain

Am Ah-a- ah... G Am G Am

Strophe 3

But she Am would not think of battle that re- duces men to animals, so G easy to be- gin and yet im- Am possible to end.
 For she the mother of all men did counsel me so wisely then,
 I G feared to walk a- lone again and Am asked if she would stay.

Refrain

Am Ah-a- ah... G Am G Am

Strophe 4

Oh Am Lady lend your hand I cried, or let me rest here at your side, have G faith and trust in me she said and Am filled my heart with life.
 "There is no strength in numbers, have no such miscon- ception, but G when you need me be assured, I Am won't be far a- way."

Refrain

Am Ah-a- ah... G Am G Am
